Dear Mary Monday Jan 27th

This a question whether I should leave my favours on you or Esther but knowing your interest in matters of this kind I am enclosing this memento for your safe keeping It is a small piece of the hangmans rope that actually was around the neck of one Pierre St Pierre who was executed May 6 1932. The man who gave it to me is over agent at Rue des Lents and at the time of the hanging he was a barber at the jail. He said that the man's last words to the priest were that St Peter was now a very old man and that he was going above to take his place. He showed me the card used by the widow - elaborately decorated with lilies - in thanking friends for their many expressions of sympathy. The agent by the way writes a lot of life insurance and carries with him about a foot of the more to interest her prospects – so you see there are touches in all trades – He worked at the trade & barber & put himself through college.

and he certainly knows his robes.
He is quite a jolly fellow but fat and greasy. He said he worried a terrible and just worried an and decided he'd – buy any furniture and considered himself quite lucky. The one flying little one he said was that she was now 44 and he was afraid that she would not be able to have many more children – They have two

We had tea yesterday with the Commander. He is now in the army - colonel of the volunteers - and leaves this week for the manoeuvres. Both he and Mrs Commander took tea with us and stayed long on. They have six children 4 boys the eldest and the youngest and three a boy.

We are leaving this afternoon for Shubenacadie and will remain there until to-morrow night.

Tell Ev that I shall write later from Halifax.

With Love to all

Affec. Dad.
